Moreover, while the Patent Office has a legitimate need to efficiently administrate its case load by limiting examination to one invention per filing, that need must give way to Applicants' statutory right to claim their invention as they see fit. See In re Weber, 198 USPQ at 332. See also, In re Watkinson, 14 USPQ2d 1407 (Fed. Cir. 1990).

Accordingly, Applicants respectfully request that the species election requirement be withdrawn.

As required under 35 U.S.C. 121, the Applicants provisionally elect to prosecute the claims directed to the species of Group A if the species election requirement is not withdrawn. At least claims 1-6, 12-15, and 20-29 are readable on the elected species. Upon allowance of a generic claim, the Applicants will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141.
